

VIRTUAL LOGISTICS CENTRES

The focus is on improving the logistics connections and logistics performance of small and medium-sized enterprises through a special network collaboration. The aim of this form of cooperation is to exploit the temporary market potentials created by individual customer needs and the shortened life cycle of products.

COMPETENCIES

- Development and application of virtual logistics centres in the field of procurement, production, distribution and recycling
- Virtual logistics centre as a cluster manager
- Virtual logistics centre and e-commerce
- Virtual logistics and business centre

SERVICES

- Logistics resource sharing with virtual logistics centre - design, system design
- Organisation of distribution processes with a virtual logistics centre - system design
- Scope of activities and networking of the virtual logistics centre - at the system plan level

TOOLS

- High-tech logistics laboratory
- IT network

REFERENCES

- Review of the letter processing system of the Hungarian Post National Logistics Center
- Investigation of the construction of a multimodal logistics service centre integrated into an industrial park
- Determining the logistics needs and resource requirements of the logistics decentralization to be established in the Sátoraljaújhely Industrial Park, examining logistics cooperation in Slovakia
- Comparison of the experience of liberalised trade in electricity as a commodity in Europe and Hungary